Member Boraski asked her to be part of the building committee. It is unfortunate that he will not be here to see completion of the new Township building during his term. She knows he will be excited to see that come to an end. The Touch-A-Truck event is something that Member Boraski took on with pride and joy. Member Boraski was also relentlessly standing up for the taxpayers all the time. Member Mullen thanked Member Boraski for everything he has done.

Chairman Dence echoed Member Mullen's comments. Twelve years is a long time and is a big commitment. Member Boraski was 'all-in' and is the ultimate family guy. He was also heavily involved in the Levittown Continental Little League. Chairman Dence appreciates Member Boraski's friendship and said he will be missed. Happy Holidays and Happy New Year.

Member Galloway moved to adjourn the meeting; Member Mullen seconded the motion; all board members were in favor. (4-0) The meeting was adjourned at 5:36 p.m.
